

Daily Oral Language

Practice Test 1

Before you start the real test, be sure to listen to and read all the directions. There will usually be a number of very specific activities to do. When you actually correct the D.O.L. sentences, correct them in the same way we do in class on the board. After the test sentences, there will be "skill" blanks and definition blanks for you to fill in. Follow those directions also.

A.

1. did you no that melvin cutface the man who began a razor company were from boston

B.

2. my blade, my razor a short story written about the beginning of gillette the largest razor

manufacturer in the world

C.

3. gillette a company which has it's headquarters in massachusetts sells more razors then any other shaving products company in the world

C.

4. wow people in the world use gillette razors almost 4,000,000 times a day

D.

5. isnt that more razors then theyre are people in milwaukee and cleveland combined asked jane

6. after i told my class about lots of important things i mentioned that their are lots of places to visit in wisconsin

E.

7. if youve been two are state you no that cheese is one of it's most important products

8. the first kindergarten in the united states was began in are state i said to my class during my

oral report

9 the state has 2 senators and 9 representatives who work in our nations capital

F.

10. in my class at westlawn elementary school i studied about wisconsin

Over certain corrections in the sentence above, there are letters. In the blanks below, write your reason for making that correction. Do NOT write what you did; write WHY you did it. If you capitalized the first word in a sentence, for example, write "first word" NOT "capital letter." You must use the correct vocabulary words in order to get full credit.

A. _____

D. _____

B. _____

E. _____

C. _____

F. _____

_____

Fill in the blank below:

G. "My brothers sits on their bed." is an example of incorrect _____