

III. In the blank after each sentence, write whether the underlined word is an adjective or a pronoun.

Example: Don't show those to me; I don't want any. pronoun

16. This should be a beautiful day. pronoun
17. What did their parents say about the problem? pronoun
18. Those pants look rather large on you. adj
19. I have a dozen cookies. Do you want any? pronoun
20. Five of my friends went to the Packers game. pronoun

IV. Fill in the blank with the correct definite or indefinite article called for.

Example: I walked into a grocery store to buy my dinner. (indefinite)

21. The honorable citizen gave back the $100 she found on the sidewalk. (definite)
22. An elderly woman sat on the park bench. (indefinite)
23. Yesterday we went on an interesting field trip. (indefinite)
24. Jenny is the tallest girl in the grade. (definite)
25. He saved the game with a one-handed catch in the left field at the bottom of the ninth inning. (indefinite)